

CALL FOR YOUTH WHO CAN DESCRIBE “MARGINALIZED YOUTH” THROUGH ARTISTIC REPRESENTATION

Are you a creative individual between the ages of 14 and 25?
Do you use art to express your experiences?
Have you ever wanted your work to be published?

Join Sick Kids’ Dr. Kate Tilleczek and Dr. Bruce Ferguson, as well as many other national and international researchers in their upcoming book as they explore how various youth are being left out, disregarded and treated unfairly by society.

Raise the awareness of youth marginalization by contributing your art, voice and experience to WIN $100 and have YOUR WORK PUBLISHED in Dr. Tilleczek and Dr. Ferguson’s edited book tentatively entitled: “Marginalized Youth and Contemporary Educational Contexts”.

Be a part of it and let your art be your voice...So what does youth marginalization mean to YOU?

CONTEST DETAILS:

- Art can be short stories, poetry, sketches, colour images, photography—you decide!

TO QUALIFY:

- You must be between the ages of 14 & 25 to qualify
- You must submit 1 ORIGINAL COPY of the consent form along with your entry. Keep a copy of the original for yourself.
- Email your submissions to karima.kinlock@sickkids.ca OR
- Mail to Karima Kinlock at The Hospital for Sick Children; 555 University Ave., Toronto Ontario; M5G 1X8
- Contest ends August 5th, 2011, & the winners will be announced on August 19th.

PLEASE NOTE:

- 10 winners will receive $100 in cash & be published
- 15 runners up will only be published
- We will not be responsible for returning any art received

For more info on variety of topics please see CHSRG Symposia Website:
<http://www.chsrgevents.ca/BecomingModernYouth/Agenda.aspx> and Education Canada’s 2010 Special themed issue at: <http://www.cea-ace.ca/education-canada/issue/theme2010>